Not illustrated. 1839 Excerpt: ...I have considered the days of old, the years PAGE 80. of eternities. What do you devise against Jehovah? A consummation he is making. All the pillars of the court round about being filleted¹ with silver. And in waters not has thou (Jern.) washed thyself. I will walk in thy truth; join (or unite) my heart to fear thy name. They shall hasten, thy children; those that broke thee down, from thee they shall go forth. And the wicked has counselled to destroy the poor men by words of a lie. Foxes, small ones, are destroying the vineyards. Jerusalem is as a city joined (to herself, i. e. separate from all around her, Psalm cxxii. 3.) together. A spirit, firm, founded) renew within me (lit. in my inner part, in the midst of me). What, a son, dear (or precious) is to me Ephraim, for since my speaking against him, to remember, I will remember him still, therefore they make a noise, my bowels, for him, to compassionate, I will compassionate him, is the declaration of Jehovah. And he was pursued, like the chaff of the mountains before the faces of the wind.--To remember, thou shalt remember³ the day of the Sabbath to sanctify it. For he has blessed, Jehovah, the day of the Sabbath, he has sanctified it. Honour thy father and thy mother, in order thou mayest be pronounced blessed upon the earth. I know, whom thou blessest, he is blessed. For better is thy mercy than life; my lips, they shall praise thee.--And also Judah shall fight against Jerusalem, and it shall be gathered, the host of all the nations round about. Not have I denied thy mercy and thy truth to the congregation, the great. What is the word which he has spoken to thee, not shalt thou conceal it (or deny it) from me. Listen unto me, ye that are pursuing justice, ye that are seeking
