

A History of the Classis of Paramus of the Reformed Church in America: Containing the Proceeding of the Centennial Meeting of the Classis, the ... and the Histories of the Individual Churches

Excerpt from A History of the Classis of Paramus of the Reformed Church in America: Containing the Proceeding of the Centennial Meeting of the Classis, the Historical Discourse, and the Addresses, Statistical History and the Histories of the Individual Churches. They desire to thank the brethren who by their able addresses caused the anniversary exercises to overflow with interest and delight, the pastors who have prepared the histories of the churches, the consistories who have diligently gathered portraits of their former pastors and the friends and acquaintances and even strangers who have confided to their care cherished mementoes, oftentimes the only photograph of a loved one they possessed, that the illustration of the work might be more complete; to each and to all of these the committee are grateful, and would have them recognized as efficient co-laborers. The assistance received from the Rev. David Cole, D. D., of Yonkers, N. Y., has been so cheerfully rendered and so exceedingly valuable that the committee gratefully make special acknowledgment of his kindness. The authors and not the committee are responsible for all statements made in the histories of the churches, the individuality of which both in style and expression has been carefully guarded and preserved. Slight discrepancies may also be discovered in the spelling of proper names. About the
